UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

In re: JASON M. KAHAN, Debtor	Chapter 7 Case No. 24-11592
PBTC RECOVERY PARTNERS, LLC, Plaintiff, v. HUNTER PENN aka ALEX COLVIN, NILS TROSTERUD, SISSEL TROSTERUD, QUANTUM RESOURCE GROUP QRG AS, NORDCAP ADVISORS AS, AND JOHN DOES 1-10, Defendants.	Adv. Pro. No. 26-1104

SECOND AMENDMENT TO TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

This matter came before the Court on the Motion by PBTC Recovery Partners, LLC for Preliminary Injunction and Related Relief, and Request for Expedited Determination ("Motion") filed by the Plaintiff, PBTC Recovery Partners, LLC, ("Plaintiff"). Pursuant to the Motion, after a hearing on October 21, 2026, the Court entered a Temporary Restraining Order dated October 22, 2026 ("TRO") against Sissel Tordhol ("Tordhol") and John Does 1-10 ("Doe Defendants") (Capitalized terms not otherwise defined shall have the meaning set forth in the TRO). After a second hearing on the TRO was held on October 29, 2026, the TRO against Tordhol and the Doe Defendants was extended to November 10, 2026. As more fully set forth in the TRO, the TRO sought to maintain the status quo with respect to the Bitcoin Assets and the Access Credentials which were sold to the Plaintiff pursuant to prior orders of the Court. Given the nature of the assets, the Bitcoin Assets and Access Credentials are subject to immediate transfer, concealment or movement beyond the reach of the Court.

The Court held a further hearing on the TRO on November 10, 2026. At the hearing, and in a status report filed on November 9, 2026, PBTC stated that it had served Tordhol her permanent address set forth in the Norwegian National Population Register (Folkeregisterer). According to PBTC, individuals in Norway are required to list their permanent address in the Register. Additionally, PBTC made an offer of proof for extending the TRO as to the Doe Defendants pending current efforts to identify and notify them as described on the record. Given the limited nature of the TRO, which seeks to maintain the status quo pending further order of the Court, the Court finds good cause to extend the TRO for a limited period as provided in this Order.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The TRO is extended through 6:00 p.m. on November 19, 2026, and shall expire at such time unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Except as amended to extend the expiration date, the TRO remains in full force and effect.

2. The Court will hold a further hearing on the TRO on November 19, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. The hearing will be held in person at John W. McCormack Post Office and Court House, 5 Post Office Square, 12th Floor, Courtroom #3, Boston, MA. The hearing is scheduled as a Hybrid Hearing. Parties and counsel may participate in person in the Courtroom or by video conference using Zoomgov.com technology. Parties who wish to appear by video must request the link from the Courtroom Deputy Lisa Belanger, at lisa_belanger@mab.uscourts.gov no later than 10:00 a.m. the business day before the hearing. Requests submitted after the deadline may not be accommodated and the Party should plan to attend in person in the Courtroom. Appearance by video is limited to counsel and parties in interest. Public access will be in person only. A Hybrid Hearing is an official court proceeding and remote attendees are required to act and dress in the same manner as in person hearings. Parties attending remotely must be in a quiet setting and must not be walking, driving, or performing other activities while participating in the hearing. Failure to comply may result in termination of access, sanctions, or other action by the Court.

3. This Amendment to the temporary restraining order is issued at 4:00 p.m. on November 10, 2026.

4. The Plaintiff shall serve this Order on Tordhol and the Doe Defendants no later November 13, 2026.

Dated: November 10, 2026

Janet E. Bostwick

JANET E. BOSTWICK
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE